

Air Vice Marshal Syed Razi Ul Hasan Nawab (Retd)

Air Vice Marshal Syed Razi Ul Hasan Nawab HI (M) (Retd), is currently serving as Deputy Managing Director (South) of Shaheen Foundation, PAF. He has spent almost 37 years in the PAF. During the vast stay in the PAF he held various Command and Staff appointments including Chief Instructor, National Defence University, Inspector General Air Force, Base Commander etc. He is basically a Fighter Pilot with over 1000 hours on F-16 aircraft. The officer is a recipient of Hilal-i-Imtiaz (Military).

The Air Officer is a graduate of PAF Air War College and National Defence University Islamabad, where he did MSc in War and Strategic Studies. He was also assigned the additional responsibility of Senior Vice President Pakistan Squash Federation. He stayed on this post for almost seven years and was singly responsible for reviving International squash in Pakistan. He was also elected in the Asian Squash Federation as Vice President for the last four years. He is also on the Board of other Media / Marketing companies.

In the Air Marshal there is a fine blend of military and civilian traits. He applies the military experience in the corporate world. A pleasant personality, excellent intra-personal skills and a par excellence international reputed sportsman, makes him a highly respected human being.